Academic Session: 2018-19

Report on Wall Magazine

Type of the Activity: Participatory

The students of the Department of Sociology, publish wall magazines on a regular basis. Students, with some guidance from their teachers, publish these magazines and show their potential as effective writers and are capable of developing their cutting-edge skills.

Objectives

- To improve the literary and creative abilities of the students
- To boost students' self-esteem and develop their abilities to deal with interpersonal difficulties.
- To foster students' ability to think critically and independently and to instil a sense of self-assurance
- To assist students in cultivating their personalities so they can feel good about themselves.

Date:21.01.19. Time of the Event: 12:30 pm

Number of attendees: (a) Student (Part 2): 67(Among them 21 students took an active role in the publication of the magazine)

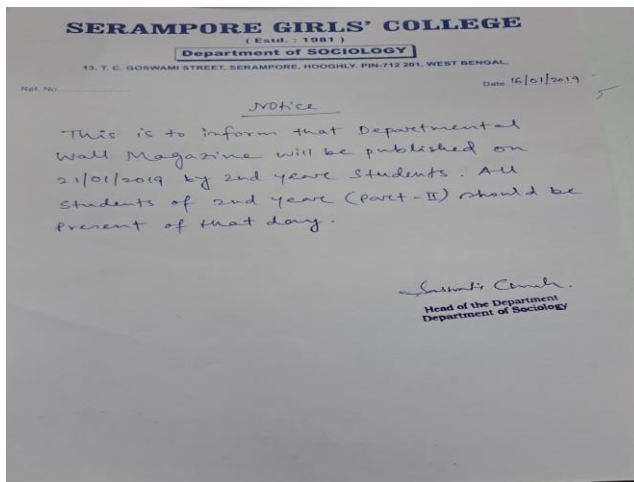

Venue: Departmental Board of First Floor of the Vidyasagar Bhawan of the College

Outcome/Feedback

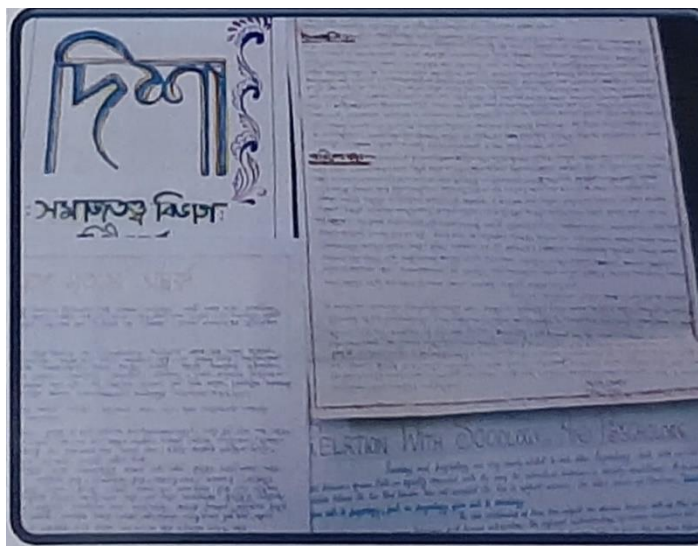

- Student publications provide additional learning opportunities for students to practice and engage in their writing craft as an extracurricular activity.
- There is a sense of ownership and pride in the writing process because when they submit to magazines or bulletin boards, they are more conscious of the fact that people will read their work.
- Student publications help students develop important life skills through collaborating on ideas, working in teams, setting objectives and deadlines, solving problems, keeping records, using technology, and other exercises.
- The publication experience also exposes students to and develops their talents in various academic and professional sectors, such as editing, publishing, writing, teaching, graphic design, etc.

STUDENT SEMINAR 2018-19

Objectives:

A Student seminar has the function of bringing together small groups of students for motivating and focusing each time on some particular subject, in which everyone present is requested to actively participate. It is essentially a place where assigned readings are discussed, questions can be raised and debates can be conducted.

The idea behind the seminar system is to familiarize students more extensively with the methodology of their chosen subject and also to allow them to interact with examples of the practical problems that always occur during their course.

PHOTOS AND REPORT ON STUDENT SEMINAR

To encourage our students in different current topics of computer science, electronic science, department of Electronic Science together with department of Computer science of Serampore Girls' College has arranged a Topic Seminar on 18.04.2019 for 2nd semester students. A few topics like Firewall, Internet of Things, Surveillance Camera Control System, Artificial Intelligence, Cybernetic Organism and many others topics were given to our students 10 days before the seminar. Students were asked to search about those topics through internet and prepare at least ten slides on those topics. The topics were also given by lottery such that each and every student could get two choices. They were also informed the date of that seminar. On the date i.e. 18th April, 2019 the seminar was started almost as per its schedule on 11:15 a.m. The judge panel was facilitated by Mr.

Gautam Banerjee, HOD of Science, Serampore Girs' College, Mr. Debkani Das, Dept of Electronics and Ms. Moumita Ghosal, Dept of Computer Science. It was very influencing that each student of 2nd Semester both Honours and General was participated in that seminar. They showed their power point presentation through giant screen. They were given just 10 minutes to explain their slides. And at last a merit panel was made by judges - Ishita Hazra was stood first, the second position was occupied by Anjali Sharma and Smita Dutta secured third position in this seminar. Two consolation prizes were given to 2nd semester General students Reshma Khatun and Damini Tiwari for their very good efforts. Certificates of participation from college were given to each student.
